' The Nun 2 ' was commented on by Mel Gibson through a video and this is what he said. The film was released on July 4 in the United States and is a box office success.

In its first week it has already accumulated 40 million dollars, an incredible figure for a film of this style and which was discarded by a major. In the weekend it has occupied the third position of the table with an excellent 18.2 million dollars, only behind the new ones of the Insidious and Indiana Jones sagas.

Why this success? Analysts consider that part of the economic success of the film is due to the technique that Angel Studios calls Pay It Forward and that they had already tested with His only son. Around 2.6 million dollars on the opening day of July 4 were achieved thanks to this system.

Pay It Forward is a distribution model that allows people to pay for tickets and for others to request tickets to see the film for free. This can also be done in large numbers, involving companies or parishes and churches. In fact, the platform allows you to pay from $15 for one person to see the film up to even $150,000 for 10,000 people to see it. The Nun 2, considered a low-budget film, has managed to raise $14.2 million in its first weekend at the box office in the United States, surpassing the $11.7 million raised by a blockbuster like Indiana Jones and the Dial of Fate.

It has been revealed that the tape cost less than 250 thousand dollars to produce, so its impact on the industry is making a dent in its first week.

Zippy might not sound like the right adjective for a nearly three-hour movie, but The Nun 2, fuelled by a marvellous screenplay and a clutch of fine performances, comes pretty close to being the most fun that a film of this sort of length has been in recent years. It packs a massive punch.

The Nun 2, directed by Chad Stahelski from a script by Shay Hatten and Michael Finch, is a fittingly flamboyant and fast-paced franchise finale that is bound to whet our appetite for the spinoffs that are reportedly in the offing.

It banks upon relentless action and stunning stunts to ensure that it never hits a dull patch. The camerawork by cinematographer Dan Laustsen, fabulously fluid, is a key cog in a film that thrives on manic momentum and movement.

The stoic demeanour and stony visage of Keanu Reeves as the titular hitman with an ever-increasing price on his head sit well on this elegantly executed, viscerally violent thriller in which the pugnacious protagonist takes on a ruthless and ambitious villain who draws his power from his network of international links and will let nobody pose a challenge to him.

Marquis Vincent de Gramont (a terrifically chilling Bill Skarsgard) wants The Nun 2 dead. He makes his intentions clear early in the film. He punishes Winston Scott (Ian McShane), manager of the New York Continental Hotel, by stripping him of his responsibilities and summarily killing latter's friend and hotel concierge Charon (Lance Reddick in one of his final screen roles).

one can claim to be the most powerful superhero .And Johnson, when gently pressed, says it's his indestructible, 5,000-year-old Kahndaqi warrior also known as Teth-Adam, that is the most powerful superhero in any universe, DC, Marvel or otherwise

"By the way, it's not hyperbole because we made the movie."And we made him this powerful.

There's nothing so wrong with "Watch 'Filmmakers for the The Nun 2 2023" that it should be avoided, but nothing—besides the appealing presence of Dwayne Johnson—that makes it worth rushing out to see. spectacles that have more or less taken over studio filmmaking, but it accumulates the genre's—and the business's—bad habits into a single two- hour-plus package, and only hints at the format's occasional pleasures. "Watch 'Filmmakers for the Sound of Freedom 2023" feels like a place-filler for a movie that's remaining to be made, but, in its bare and shrugged-off sufficiency, it does one positive thing that, if nothing else, at least accounts for its success: for all the churning action and elaborately jerry-rigged plot, there's little to distract from the movie's pedestal-like display of Johnson, its real-life superhero.

It's no less numbing to find material meant for children retconned for adults—and, in the process, for most of the naïve delight to be leached out, and for any serious concerns to be shoehorned in and then waved away with dazzle and noise. Watch 'Filmmakers for the The Nun 2 2023" offers a moral realm that draws no lines, a personal one of simplistic stakes, a political one that suggests any interpretation, an audiovisual one that rehashes long-familiar tropes and repackages overused devices for a commercial experiment that might as well wear its import as its title. When I was in Paris in 1983, Jerry Lewis—yes, they really did love him there—had a new movie in theaters. You're Crazy, Jerry."Watch 'Filmmakers for the The Nun 2 2023 " could be retitled 'You're a Superhero, Dwayne'— it's the marketing team's PowerPoint presentation extended to feature length.

In addition to being Johnson's DC Universe debut, "Watch 'Filmmakers for the The Nun 2 2023" is also notable for marking the return of Henry Cavill's Superman. The cameo is likely to set up future showdowns between the two characters, but Hodge was completely unaware of it until he saw the film.

"They kept that all the way under wraps, and I didn't know until maybe a day or two before the premiere," he recently said Watch 'Filmmakers for the The Nun 2 2023 FULLMOVIE ONLINE

Unfortunately, Watch 'Filmmakers for the The Nun 2 2023 is not currently available to stream on Disney Plus and it's not expected that the film will release on Disney Plus until late December at the absolute earliest.

While Disney eventually releases its various studios' films on Disney Plus for subscribers to watch via its streaming platform, most major releases don't arrive on Disney Plus until at least 45-60 days after the film's theatrical release.

Watch 'Filmmakers for the The Nun 2 2023 has finally ended the box office blues. It will be a close call, but based on the estimates, the year's biggest opener remains Doctor Strange in the Multiverse of Madness with its $187 million start. Nonetheless, Wakanda Forever's $180 million opening is a huge one, being the biggest ever for the month of November (beating the $158 million of The Hunger Games: Catching Fire), the second biggest of the year, and the 13th biggest of all time (though it could go up or down a few slots once the actuals come out). It led an overall weekend box office of $208 million, which is the fourth biggest of the year and the biggest by a long shot of the past four months, with no other weekend since July 8 -10 even going above $133 million.

This isn't the $202 million opening that we saw from Watch 'Filmmakers for the The Nun 2 2023 in February 2018, nor should we expect the amazing legs that were able to get that film to an astonishing $700 million. With that said, expect it to perform strong throughout the holiday season, likely repeating the five-weekend number-one streak that the first film had, and it shouldn't have any trouble becoming the second highest grossing film of the year so far, beating the $411 million cume of Doctor Strange in the Multiverse of Madness. The audience response is strong, with the A CinemaScore falling below the first film's A+ but bouncing back from the B+'s earned by Doctor Strange 2 and Thor: Love and Thunder, which ranked among the worst for the MCU. improvement over the recent franchise installations,with the aforementioned films coming in at 74% and 64% respectively on Rotten Tomatoes, both at the lower end for Marvel films, while Wakanda Forever's 84% is closer to franchise norms, though not meeting the high bar set by the first Watch 'Filmmakers for the The Nun 2 2023's 96%.

The sequel opened to $150 million internationally, which Disney reports is 4% ahead of the first film when comparing like for likes at current exchange rates. Overall, the global cume comes to $330 million. Can it become the year's third film to make it past $1 billion worldwide despite China and Russia, which made up around $124 million of the first film's $682 million international box office, being out of play? It may be tough, but it's not impossible. Legging out past $500 million is plausible on the domestic front (that would be a multiplier of at least 2.7), and another $500 million abroad would be a drop of around $58 million from the original after excluding the two MIA markets. It'd be another story if audiences didn't love the film, but the positive reception suggests that Wakanda Forever will outperform the legs on this year's earlier MCU titles (Multiverse of Madness and Love and Thunder had multipliers of 2.2 and 2.3 respectively).

As for the rest of the box office, there's little to get excited about, with nothing else grossing above $10 million as Hollywood shied away from releasing anything significant not just this weekend but also over the previous two weekends. When Watch 'Filmmakers for the The Nun 2 2023 opened in 2018, there was no counterprogramming that opened the same weekend, but Peter Rabbit and Fifty Shades Freed were in their second weekends and took second and third with $17.5 million and $17.3 million respectively. That weekend had an overall cume of $287 million compared to $208 million this weekend. Take away the $22 million gap between the two Watch 'Filmmakers for the The Nun 2 2023 films and there's still a $57 million gap between the two weekends. The difference may not feel that large when a mega blockbuster is propping up the grosses, but the contrast is harsher when the mid-level films are the entire box office as we saw in recent months.

Watch 'Filmmakers for the The Nun 2 2023, which is the biggest grosser of the rough post-summer, pre Wakanda Forever season, came in second with just $8.6 million. Despite the blockbuster competition that arrived in its fourth weekend, the numbers didn't totally collapse, dropping 53 % for a cume of $151 million. Worldwide it is at $352 million, which isn't a great cume as the grosses start to wind down considering its $200 million budget. Still, it's the biggest of any film since Thor: Love and Thunder, though Wakanda Forever will overtake it any day now.

Watch 'Filmmakers for the The Nun 2 2023 came in third place in its fourth weekend, down 29% with $6.1 million, emerging as one of the season's most durable grossers and one of the year's few bright spots when it comes to films for adults. The domestic cume is $56.5 million. Fourth place went to Lyle, Lyle, Crocodile, which had a negligible drop of 5% for a $3.2 million sixth weekend and $40.8 million cume., in fact )

, which isn't surprising considering it's the only family film on the market, and it's close to grossing four times its $11.4 million opening. Still, the $72.6 million worldwide cume is soft given the $50 million budget, though a number of international markets have yet to open.

Finishing up the top five is Watch 'Filmmakers for the The Nun 2 2023, which had its biggest weekend drop yet, falling 42% for a $2.3 million seventh weekend. Of course, that's no reason to frown for the horror film, which has a domestic cume of $103 million and global cume of $ 210 million from a budget of just $20 million.

The one new specialty title of note comes from a filmmaker we don't typically associate with the specialty box office: Steven Spielberg. The Beard's semi-autobiographical family drama Watch 'Filmmakers for the The Nun 2 2023 opened in four theaters in New York and Los Angeles to $160k, a $40k average. The film expands to 600 theaters the day before Thanksgiving, and it has the potential to break out in a way that none of the other of the season's awards contenders have. We're also seeing very solid numbers from Watch 'Filmmakers for the The Nun 2 2023, which grossed $1.7 million this weekend for a seventh place finish, bringing its cume to $5.8
